Dear Ms. Wiggins (or whoever else may be in charge of handling FOIA requests):

This is a request under the Freedom of Information Act, seeking the documents described below related to the amount of union official time authorized by the Social Security Administration (SSA) during the partial government shutdown in October 2013. I request that documents containing the following information be provided to me:

1. Names of SSA employees that conducted union activities on official time from October 1, 2013, to October 16, 2013;
2. Number of hours spent, per employee, conducting union activities on official time from October 1, 2013, to October 16, 2013;
3. Cost of each employee (salary and benefits) that spent time on official time from October 1, 2013, to October 16, 2013;
4. What activities were performed by SSA employees on union official time from October 1, 2013, to October 16, 2013; and
5. The number of full-time official time SSA employees that were not furloughed during the partial government shutdown from October 1, 2013, to October 16, 2013.

If possible, I request that responsive records be provided in electronic form, either in PDF or on unencrypted CDs or DVDs.

We request that your office waive charges pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(iii) & 7 C.F.R. Part 1, Appendix A to Subpart A of Part 1, §§ 5(b)&(c) & 6(a), since, as is explained below, disclosure is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the Government and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requestor.

Even if you do not waive the charges pursuant to those provisions, we request in the alternative that your office waive charges for the first 100 pages and first two hours of search time.¹

We request this on the basis that CEI is a nonprofit, tax-exempt, public-interest organization, with formal research, educational, and publication functions as part of its mission, and because release of these records will serve the public interest by contributing significantly to the public's understanding of government operations, the shaping of public policy, and how taxpayer money is spent.² This FOIA request is not for commercial use.³

If our fee waiver is denied, we are willing to pay up to $100.00, and in the event of any appeal as appropriate and regardless of that outcome or your response to this fee waiver request, we request the search and document production proceed in the interim. (If there are any such charges, please provide an invoice for the time incurred and cost for each document for which more than $15.00 is sought.)

CEI's interest in the documents springs from its efforts to educate the public, scholars, and state and federal regulators on matters of government operations,⁴ including union official time.⁵

² See, e.g., 7 C.F.R. Part 1, Appendix A to Subpart A of Part 1, § 5(b) (providing for fee waivers for Educational and non-commercial scientific institution requesters).

³ Nor would it primarily further or advance any commercial interest. Also, CEI is not a trade association.

⁴ CEI is widely quoted in the press and other publications. See, e.g., George Will, Obama's Speech Police, Washington Post, May 26, 2013, at A17 (quoting CEI's Hans Bader about federal education mandates) (available in Westlaw at 2013 WLNR 12921146); Cathy Young, Yet Another Governmental Overreach, Newsday, May 28, 2013 (quoting CEI's Hans Bader); Ramesh Ponnuru, Colleges: New Sexual Harassment Rules Defy Reason, St. Paul Pioneer-Press, July 24, 2013, at A14 (quoting CEI's Hans Bader) (2013 WLNR 18241796); Yet Another Federal Attack on Civil Liberties, Cincinnati Enquirer, May 26, 2013, at F5 (quoting CEI's Hans Bader); JulieAnn McKellogg, US Supreme Court Hears Massive Wal Mart Discrimination Case, Voice of America, March 29, 2011 (quoting CEI's Hans Bader); Al Neuharth, Why Bail Out Bosses Who Messed It Up, USA Today, Nov. 21, 2008, at 23A (quoting CEI) (available at 2008 WLNR 22235170); Bill Shea, Agency Looks Beyond Criticism of Ads of GM Boasting About Repaid Loan, Crain's Detroit Business, May 17, 2010, at 3 (available in Westlaw) (citing CEI); William P. ⁵ For example, the author of this letter routinely writes about federal official time. See, e.g., Time for an official end to federal employee union subsidies, Washington Examiner, June 5, 2013, (<http://washingtonexaminer.com/op-ed-time-for-an-official-end-to-federal-employee-union->

The general and policy-oriented public will benefit from the dissemination of the information requested, since CEI's professionals are widely-published about these subjects.

CEI publishes about these and other issues in print and electronic media, as well as newsletters to legislators, education professionals, and other interested parties,⁶ and thus qualifies as a press entity for purposes of FOIA.⁷ Those activities are in fulfillment of CEI's mission. The information received will be disseminated through one or more of the following: a) newsletters, (b) opinion pieces in newspapers or magazines, (c) CEI's web sites and blogs which receive approximately 80,000 monthly visitors (approximately 40,000 unique) and are published on most days,⁸ (d) in-house publications for public dissemination, (e) other electronic journals including daily blogs and newspaper blogs to which our professionals contribute,⁹ (f) local and syndicated radio programs dedicated to discussing public policy, (g) to the extent that Congress or states engaged in relevant oversight or related legislative or judicial activities find that which is received noteworthy, it will become part of the public record on deliberations of the legislative branches of the Federal and State Governments on the relevant issues. CEI is regularly cited in newspapers,¹⁰ law reviews,¹¹ and legal and scholarly publications.¹²

As provided by FOIA, I look forward to hearing from you within twenty (20) days.¹³ If you deny this request, please provide a written explanation for the denial including a reference to the specific statutory exemption on which you are relying, and provide the name and address of the person or body to whom an appeal should be directed. Also, please provide all segregable or non-exempt portions of otherwise exempt material.

If you have any questions regarding this FOIA request please contact me at tkovacs@cei.org by email. I may also be reached by phone at 202-331-1010.

Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Trey Kovacs
