

Recently, more than 70% of Americans said they don't want the government to prepare their taxes for them...

...and thankfully, 108 bipartisan Members of Congress already agree.

Reps. Melissa Hart and Anna Eshoo have introduced H.R. 5114, the Tax Return Choice Act of 2006, with 106 original cosponsors. This bill will ensure the preservation of Voluntary Compliance in the American tax system and the continued separation of the role of tax collector from that of tax preparer - as supported by the 70% of respondents to an online Wall Street Journal poll on April 12, 2006. The Tax Return Choice Act of 2006 will ensure the American people remain in control over the process of finding every deduction and credit to reduce their tax bills.
